

Love one another

Our call to love another is very practical. Read 1 Corinthians 13: 1-13.
How much evidence is there of these characteristics in your relationships?
Make a mark on each spoke then draw a line to join them.

What does this reveal about the shape of your love?

What might God want to grow in you?

Think a step you can take this week to develop this characteristic.

Talk with others in your household or community about this shape.

How can you help one another grow in love?

If you have come with children

The kids today have been looking at the story of Ruth.

What can this story tell us about community and love?
